POMPOMS UP!

Carol Cleveland

“Carol was definitely the sexiest of the Pythons!” Michael Palin

“Carol Cleveland, often referred to as the 7th Python, has had a career spanning decades on film, TV and stage.

PomPoms Up! tells the story of the British born, but American raised former model, Beauty Queen and Playboy Bunny who trained at RADA and went on to become an accomplished actress who could well hold her own against the might of the Python boys.

She offers us star-studded memoirs of her work and frolics with the likes of Shirley MacLaine, Peter Sellers, David Niven, Ian McShane and even Charlie Chaplin.

A warm and humorous narrative that shares the sadness, joys and thrills of an exciting career.”

- * Original artwork by Terry Gilliam
- * A timely publication, coinciding with the Monty Python reunion shows this summer
- * Author interviews and media coverage planned
